The MASTERY of Self Expression Workshop

The MASTERY offers individuals an opportunity to discover themselves as the source of their own creativity, power, passion, and joy. Participants experience how powerful they already are and learn to actualize that in their lives rather than waiting for the "right time", "permission", and/or the "right opportunity".

This workshop honours you, the individual. You are unique. We create a place where each person can get to rediscover themselves. You can rediscover that inner part of you where everything is available and all your possibilities exist. This is a place where you remove your limitations. And, what you come out with is YOU.

The workshop also assists participants in moving from a position of unconsciousness and lack of clarity to a position of consciousness and clarity - empowering each individual to make conscious choices in their lives.

The MASTERY weekend is a powerful event that offers each participant choices and tools to use in all areas of their lives. The weekend is, in many ways, a laboratory which encourages participants, in a supportive environment, guided by their individual goals, to step outside their comfort zone and realize more of their potential.
